A coalition of local labour unions, community organizations and residents will be holding a rally this Saturday in solidarity with frontline workers and Ottawa residents affected by the occupation.
Saturday February 12th at 1 PM
Lansdowne Park - behind Aberdeen Pavilion
We have serious concerns about how governments have handled the pandemic, but we say no to how the far right is mobilizing discontent. We shouldn't be afraid to walk down the street in our own neighbourhoods. It's time to build a real working class movement that can defend our communities and our rights.
